

Solution

The problem can be solved using Breadth-First Search (BFS) by representing the amount of water in the two jugs as a state. From each state, possible operations such as filling, emptying, and pouring water between the jugs are generated. BFS explores these states systematically until the required amount of water is obtained.