

Problem Statement – DFS

Develop a program to implement Depth-First Search (DFS) for a given graph. The program should start from a specified vertex and visit all reachable vertices by exploring each path as deeply as possible before backtracking. The traversal should use a stack or recursion and mark visited vertices to avoid repeated visits.