

Problem Statement

Tic-Tac-Toe is a two-player game played on a 3×3 grid, where one player uses X and the other uses O. The objective is to place three identical symbols in a row, column, or diagonal. The problem is to develop an intelligent agent that can analyze the possible game states and select the optimal move against the opponent.