

Problem Statement

Cryptarithmic is a mathematical puzzle in which the letters of an arithmetic expression are replaced by different digits. The objective is to find a unique digit for each letter such that the complete arithmetic operation is mathematically correct. No two letters can represent the same digit, and a leading letter cannot represent zero.