

Solution

The problem can be solved using constraint satisfaction and backtracking. Different possible digits are assigned to the letters while maintaining the constraints of the puzzle. Each assignment is checked to determine whether it satisfies the arithmetic equation. Invalid assignments are rejected, and the search continues until a valid solution is found.